COOPERATION AGREEMENT ON STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN GUANGXI VOCATIONAL & TECHNICAL INSTITUTE OF INDUSTRY AND RAJAMANGALA UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY THANYABURI

Guangxi Vocational & Technical Institute of Industry, herein pertains as the "First Party", plans to send students to Rajamangala University of Technology Thanyaburi, therein referred as the "Second Party" sixteen days training. In order to coordinate related management matters, both parties are hereby signing this Agreement.

I. The Principle of the Cooperation

1. To promote the exchange of experience, education, communication and cooperation between the two countries.
2. The two parties will co-operate based on the principles of mutual benefit, honesty, credit and common interest.

II. The Content of the Cooperation

3. The First Party will send students to the Second Party to undergo training. The departure of the delegates will be in August, 2013.
4. Standard Fees
The Second Party will be responsible for the charges of training, accommodation, water and electricity bills. Other charges, such as the cost of living, personal insurance, passport or visa processing, tour, etc. First Party will be paid by the students themselves.
5. The schedule for training. (See the detailed schedule in the attachment.)

III. The Responsibilities and Obligations of the Two Parties

6. First Party's responsibilities and obligations:
   6.1. Fulfill the required documentation work for the students who will go abroad to take the training.
   6.2. Provide Second Party the copies of the students' pertinent documents.
   6.3. First Party will arrange medical check-up for its students, and hand over the copies of their health certificates to Second Party.
   6.4. First Party will instruct the students to abide and observe local laws and regulations, take the training seriously, and finish the training on time.
   6.5. First Party has the obligation to assist Second Party to deal with the problems during the students training.

7. Second Party's responsibilities and obligations:

7.1. Second Party has the right (according to Second Party's health standard) not to accept the students of First Party without obtaining a health certificate.

7.2. Second Party has the right to manage the students of First Party in accordance with Second Party's regulations on student management, and has the right to give sanctions to the students of First Party who have violated the regulations, as well as to inform First Party for any uncertainly

7.3. Assist the students of First Party to deal with entry and resident procedures in accordance with the local laws and regulations of entry and exit control.

7.4. Second Party has the obligation to shuttle the students of First Party at Suvarnabhumi airport to their destination.

7.5. Second Party is responsible for the accommodation of the students of First Party on campus during the training. The dormitory facilities include bed, bedding, bathroom, fan, One dormitory is arranged for no more than four students.

7.6. Second Party has the obligation to give the students of First Party instructions, to introduce and clarify Thai's relevant laws and regulations, social moral standards and customs and Second Party's rules and regulations.

7.7. Second Party is responsible for keeping the legitimate rights and interests of students of the First party from being infringed upon during the duration of training in Thailand.

8. The exchange students of Second Party's responsibilities and obligations

8.1. The students of First Party have the right; to use the fitness gym for free, and go into the library and the electronic reading room to read.

8.2. Under the precondition of the Second Party's permission, the students of First Party have the right to organize the related activities without violating Thai laws and the Second Party' students management regulations, but the activities must be on Second Party's campus.

8.3. The students of First Party should fulfill their training task according to the schedule of the agreement, and abide by the laws of Thailand and Second Party's regulations of students management.

IV. Other items :

9. In the same cooperation project, both parties should not influence each other interests and reputation when cooperating with the third party, moreover, either of the two parties must not cause damage to the other party.

10. The responsibilities for breach of the agreement

10.1. Any one of the two parties breaches the agreement and cause losses to the other party or the students, the defaulting party should undertake the corresponding responsibility.

10.2 If one party breaches the obligations of the agreement, causes a fundamental breach of the agreement's purpose, or one party breaches the agreement but still does not rectify after the notice of the other party, the other party may terminate the agreement. The defaulting party is responsible to compensate the other party's direct economic losses which caused by the party that breaches the agreement and causes the termination of the agreement.

10.3. This agreement is invalid from the date when defaulting party received each other's notification of termination of the agreement.

11. Situation of Force Majeure

11.1. If the situation of force majeure happens, both parties should negotiate to solve the related issues. In principle, both parties will continue to perform the agreement as long as the force majeure ends.

11.2. If the situation of the force majeure causes this agreement to be unable to continue to perform, and the purpose of the agreement cannot be achieved, both parties should have the right to terminate the agreement. The loss caused by the termination will be borne by the both parties. The termination of the agreement should be on the date of the receipt of the notice of the termination of the contract.

12. The ways to solve the dispute

All the disputes arising out of, or relating to the performance of this agreement, should be solved by the both parties through friendly negotiation.

13. Unless there are extra stipulations, the agreement's being changed or terminated midway (except for the termination of the agreement caused by the breach of agreement) must be approved by both the parties through consultation and signing a written supplement agreement. Before signing the supplementary agreement, the terms of the agreement are still valid. A supplementary agreement through consultation as the attachment of this agreement, have the same legal effect.

14. This agreement shall become effective on the date both parties sign it. It is valid until training period expires. One party should put forward to the other party one month in advance if it wants to terminate this agreement.

15. This agreement is written in duplicate in English and Chinese; both the two languages have the same effect. Each party is taking one English copy and one Chinese copy.

First Party:	Second Party:
Guangxi Vocational & Technical Institute of Industry	Rajamangala University of Technology Thanyaburi
Jin Changyi President	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Numyoot Songthanapitak President
Date : July 10, 2013	Date : July 10, 2013