2. The number of free seats shall be mutually agreed upon a case-by-case basis, considering the capacity of each department.
3. Students who wish to do their studies under this program are responsible to provide their own allowance costs. Free accommodation will be provided based on the availability of student housing.

3.4. Administration Aspects

1. The two institutions have their own right to do selection process of their prospective students who wish to apply for joint degree program with the spirit of fairness and responsibility.
2. The office of international affairs of both institutions will work together to handle any issues related to immigration regulation in order to help students before, during and after their studies.
3. Both parties will issue student identification cards that can be used to access facilities to support their studies.
4. Both parties will help ensure that students will get accommodation on their arrival and provide personnel who are in charge in addressing their needs.

3.5. Intellectual Property Right

1. Neither party claims, by virtue of this agreement, any right or legal interest in existing or pending intellectual property, including patents, trademarks, copyright, design patents or other rights of the other party or in any intellectual property that might result from the other party's prior activities.
2. Intellectual property rights resulted from student final project will belong to the host university unless otherwise agreed between the parties before the project initiated.

ARTICLE IV. DURATION, TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

1. This agreement will be effective from the date of the last signature for an initial period of five years, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving six months notice to the other party in writing. The agreement may be extended or revised through mutual consent of both parties.
2. The provision of this MoA may be amended at any time with the mutual consent of the parties in writing.
3. The amendment, termination and expiration of this MoA will not affect the terms of activities ongoing at the time of notification of amendment, termination and expiration unless otherwise agreed between the parties.

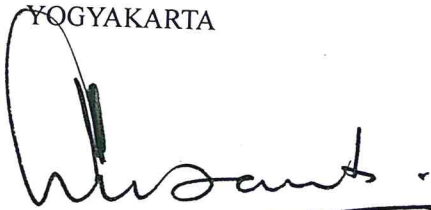

ARTICLE V. SPECIAL PROVISION

1. Both parties shall do their utmost to ensure the smooth and efficient implementation of activities to be carried out under this Memorandum of Agreement.
2. The two parties will consult with each other and attempt to resolve disputes or misunderstandings that arise in the administration of this MoA or any subsequent associated agreement.

This MoA is prepared in two identical copies. Each party holds one original copy duly signed by the Dean of FIT-UII and the Dean of FE-RMUTT. Each copy is of equal validity.
